Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

Ed Hymoff, Andy Nyswander and I appreciated the time you gave us Tuesday.

There were several topics we discussed where Arthur D. Little's professional capabilities might be useful to the C.I.A. The next step on any of these would be to have the right professionals from here talk with your people in detail. I shall want to hear from you when this will be useful.

By coincidence two other Arthur D. Little people were at your offices on Tuesday. Ed Grabhorn made a presentation on our service to monitor worldwide telecommunications development and Gene Key met with people from Mr. Gates' office to discuss our work in program management support.

I cannot match the pleasant surroundings, but if you should ever have the time, I'd be delighted for the chance to repay the hospitality and show you some of the projects under way at Arthur D. Little.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

John
